the far end of town

where the Grickle-grass grows and the wind smells slow-and-sour when it blows and no birds ever sing excepting old crows ...

is the Street of the Lifted Lorax.

And deep in the Grickle-grass, some people say, if you look deep enough you can still see, today, where the Lorax once stood just as long as it could before somebody lifted the Lorax away.
